An Overview of the Islamic Educational College (IEC)

- The Islamic Educational College which was established in 1947, was inaugurated by His Majesty King Abdullah I, the founder.
- IEC is supervised by the Islamic Cultural Society, which supports the schools and provides all their needs and requirements.
- The schools apply an educational philosophy emanating from the goals of the Islamic Cultural Society within a moderate Islamic educational approach, far from profit-making goals.
- The schools are honored that His Majesty King Hussein bin Talal, may Allah have mercy on him, and His Majesty King Abdullah II studied at IEC. In addition to a number of princes and nobles from the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan and other Arab and Islamic countries.
- It has been graduating leaders of intellect, politics, literature, economics, finance and business in the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan and other Arab and Islamic countries.
- The Islamic Educational College consists of eleven schools in its two campuses, Jabal Amman and Jubaiha.
- IEC has over 7200 students, and more than 25000 graduates.
