

1- How do adult swans take care of their young?

One parent stays with the babies all the time.

2- Are the baby swans capable of escaping danger? Why?

No, because they can't fly.

3- The adults swans work hard to keep other animals away from their babies. Explain.

They teach their babies how to take care of themselves.

4- When are baby swans considered ready to leave their parents?

When they can fly.

5- Quote from the passage a sentence that shows us that it takes a bit too long for a baby swan to fly.

The babies cannot fly for many months after they are born.

6- Find a word that means: something that can cause harm. danger

(P. 14)1- How do adult swans take care of their young?

.....

2- Are the baby swans capable of escaping danger? Why?

.....

3- The adults swans work hard to keep other animals away from their babies. Explain.

.....

4- When are baby swans considered ready to leave their parents?

.....

5- Quote from the passage a sentence that shows us that it takes a bit too long for a baby swan to fly.

.....

6- Find a word that means: something that can cause harm. -----